In regard to an article published in the TRUE NORTHERNER of April 24th, 1889, and the Evening News of April 26th, 1889, relative to postoffice affairs at this place, I wish to state that I took possession of the office April 23d, and since that time neither the late postmaster nor his assistant have visited the office only upon my request for them to do so to render assistance or give me instruction.

The question of the extermination of the buffalo and the elk is dealt with in an article entitled "The Western Outlook for Sportsmen." Georgian courtship is described in "Ogechee Cross-Firings," and many other topics are ably handled and stories admirably told.

Although heavier than was the Duke of Perche, he more closely resembles him than does any horse in Michigan—having the same small head and ear; large, full, prominent eye; high crest; wonderfully good legs and feet, and has the same style, action, nerve and energy so remarkable in the Duke, and is, withal, a great breeder.

Just remember how many buyers have been in this vicinity this spring, picking up all the

THIRD POINT

You should read the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS because it is a red-hot, independent newspaper. There are two sides to every political question, and the Daily News gives them both with equal fairness. A party organ magnifies one side and dwells on the other. No sensible man wants to be trifled with in this fashion. The time has gone by when American citizens expect to inherit their political opinions. They want to know their own and to do this they want a paper to tell them the truth, regardless of their own personal preferences. If you are an honest man, independent and self-reliant in thought, read an honest and independent newspaper—read THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.

Remember—Its circulation is 200,000 a day—over a million in a week—costs by mail less than a month, four months $1.00, one year $3.00.
